

SCOTLAND is a hotbed for judo. Home of former world champion, Graeme Randall - Scotland is now the base for three members of the 2008 Olympic team: Michelle Rogers, Sarah Clark and Euan Burton. Here we find out more about Euan...

Hometown: Edinburgh.

How long have you been doing judo? 23 Years.

What other sports did you do when you were younger? Basketball, BMX, Tennis, Football.

First judo club? Bonnyrigg Judo Club/Sportif.

First judo coach? Peter Gardiner.

Childhood sporting hero? Michael Jordan.

What are your judo aspirations?

To win Gold at the big 3. European Champs, World Champs and Olympic Games. And to finish knowing I'd done everything I could to be the best player I could be.

What is your nickname?

I don't really have one! Nothing printable anyway.

If you were not a judo player what would you be doing?

I can't think of a life without judo! Too tough a question.

Who is your secret crush?

Jasmine Harman, she presents The TV programme "A Place in the Sun" on channel 4. Hot!

What's on your iPod?

A load of movies, some Scrubs episodes, some judo clips and a ton of all kinds of music.

What is your favourite Xbox / Gameboy / Playstation game?

I'm playing on the Nintendo Wii a lot now. Also I'm a bit addicted to guitar hero.

What is your favourite country?

Scotland!!

What is your favourite food?

Any delicious cake from the Manna House in Edinburgh.

What song is most likely to make you move on the dance floor?

"If there is something" by Roxy music.

Can you tell us something no-one else knows about you? NO!

What can you be heard saying most often (e.g. your favourite catchphrase or motto)?

Quipi anyone?

EUAN FIGHTS IN BEIJING ON 12.08.08!
WATCH HIM ON THE TV